

RESOURCES

A series of useful information to help you

Job searching

So you're now searching for a job. Who do you ask, where do you look and what do you look for?

Below is some guidance to help you on your way to successful job hunting.

Who do I ask?

- ✓ Research job profile sites, such as on the National Careers Service
- ✓ Ask your Careers Advisor or Tutor to help you
- ✓ Family or Advisor, brainstorm your ideas with them

Where do I look?

- ✓ Adverts in local papers
- ✓ Apprenticeship.org.uk
- ✓ Jobcentre Plus site
- ✓ Shop windows
- ✓ Internet job sites
- ✓ Employer research
- ✓ Referrals from friends, family or advisors

Look on our website resources page for further ideas.

What do I look for?

- ✓ Full time employment with training
- ✓ Apprenticeships
- ✓ Work experience or volunteering
- ✓ College courses
- ✓ Part-time employment for example week days or weekends
- ✓ Seasonal work part-time or full-time employment

This part of your job searching journey is crucial. Stay focused and remain positive – the results will speak for themselves!